

Voluntary sector

Commissioning the voluntary sector

Achieving better outcomes for better lives

The Commissioning Support Programme was set up to improve life chances for children and young people in England. Our success since our launch in November 2008 lies in our ability to be a powerful agent for change through our unique commissioning approach.

Click here to find out more about the programme.

Outcomes & Efficiency

Schools

Voluntary sector

Latest news and events

Delivering better outcomes for disabled children

The Commissioning Support Programme has recently launched Commissioning for Outcomes and Efficiency: Delivering better outcomes for disabled children. To find our more about this valuable resource, please look at our news item.

Download the document

Good commissioning is in children's best interests

Lorraine O'Reilly, CSP Programme Director, writes in the Guardian on how Commissioning allows local authorities and their partners to remain focused on improving outcomes while making efficiency savings.

Read the full article here

Introducing our Workstream

The Place Based Productivity Programme was conceived in summer 2010 as part of the Local Government Group's response to budgetary challenges.

Take a look at the workstream newsletter

Event

National Tackling Gangs and Serious Youth Violence Conference

Capita's 2nd National Tackling Gangs and Serious Youth Violence Conference combines essential...

View event

Event

Academies

"This Government believes that teachers and head teachers, not politicians and bureaucrats,...

View event

Event

Welfare Reform in Scotland

As the Coalition Government outlines its plans for a radical overhaul of the UK welfare system,...

View event